THE SENTINEL.

WM. E. PELL, SEATON GALES. } Editors.

Tuesday, June 12, 1866.

OUR TERMS.

THE SENTINEL is issued every morning (Sunday excepted) at the following rates:

For Daily, per year,	$10 00
" six months,	5 00
" one month,	1 00
" two months,	2 00
Semi-Weekly, per year,	5 00
Weekly, per year,	2 00

Our terms are invariably in advance. Money may be sent us by the Rail Road conductors or the Express Companies.

First of July.

On this day, the first of July next, the time for which many of our subscribers to the Daily have paid, will expire. We trust they will all renew in due time. We are contemplating considerable improvements in the Sentinel, about that time.

In Arreares.

Many of our friends are in arreares to us for the Daily, sent to them before the 1st of April last. We are waiting on them patiently to remit.

Gov. Worth, the People's Choice.

Relying upon the unmistakable evidences of approval from all parts of the State, and from all classes and parties, we are glad to see that Gov. Worth, without waiting for the nomination of cliques, caucusses or conventions, has declared himself a candidate for re-election to the office of Governor, in August next.

That he should be a candidate for re-election under ordinary circumstances, is what might very naturally be expected. For we presume, no one could make the necessary sacrifices to serve in that office for a single year, without the expectation of re-election, if his course met the public approbation. But Gov. Worth has so signally met this approbation, and has so fully shown to our whole people his eminent fitness for that position in the trying emergencies through which we are passing, that the public expectation must have been disappointed, had he allowed any circumstance to prevent his coming forward as a candidate for re-election.

His brief and characteristic circular which we publish to-day, is but a recapitulation of his views and purposes as more largely set forth in the past record of his life, in his first circular announcing himself a candidate, in his annual message to the Legislature and in his more recent message to the Convention.

Standing as he did in former years, squarely and firmly upon the preservation of the Union and a close adherence to the Constitution, as the best security for the maintenance of peace and public virtue, and as the only true road to national prosperity and safety, and standing now with President Johnson, firmly for the Union under the Constitution, discarding all tendencies or attempts to change the character of the government from those wise and safe landmarks which guided our fathers in its formation, he points to his official acts and opinions as the best guaranty for his future course.

Gov. Worth, although his party affinities have always been indicated by his political tenets, has always been opposed to the spirit of proscription for mere party's sake. As Governor of North Carolina, he cannot regard himself as the representative of a party, but as a representative of the people. Hence his intercourse with his fellow citizens has been as fraternal and kind towards those who have been his political opponents as with his political friends.—And without compromising in the least his well defined and life long principles, he carefully guards the interests of the State, by selecting honest, capable and reliable men to execute the high trusts committed to his oversight. With him worth makes the man.

In this course he gives no countenance to the spirit of disloyalty or disunionism, as alleged against him. Pure and simple in his own purposes and aims, he is neither captious nor suspicious, nor given to evil surmisings or invidious and hurtful discriminations among his fellow-citizens. Regarding every man who voluntarily took the oath of amnesty proposed by President Johnson, as pledged in honor to support the government and henceforth a friend of the Union, his sense of propriety and justice would not allow him to call in question their loyalty until by some act, they forfeited that position. Hence he has over and over again endorsed the loyalty of his people. Few men know his constituency better than Gov. Worth, and few appreciate them more highly.

Gov. Worth is a man of the people. His interests, his aims and hopes are theirs. Through a somewhat long life, he has been closely identified with them and has labored to promote their interests. From the day he entered upon the duties of his office, he has been sedulously devoted to them. In their losses and sufferings he has sympathised with them, and sought by every means to relieve and assist them.

Many of our people are still unpardoned.—In every instance called to his attention, he has promptly urged their claims upon the government, and has had the satisfaction to know that these efforts have not been unavailing. His intercourse with the government at Washington has been frank and manly, and his success in promoting the interests of the people and of the State, show how he is appreciated.

Perhaps, nothing so much commends Gov. Worth to the confidence of the people, as the straight forward honesty which has marked his course. He has his eye on every interest of the State, and with unflagging energy he leaves nothing undone to promote her interests and honor.

We believe the people of North Carolina will hail his announcement for re-election with general favor, and will endorse his administration by a triumphant vote in August.

State Agent at Washington.

We observe that Mr. Dockery has revived in the Convention the proposition to appoint Dr. Powell, Agent for the State at Washington. In every form in which this proposition was made to the Legislature it was promptly rejected.—The cry of extravagance has come with force against all unnecessary expenditure, and this from the particular friends of Mr. Dockery.—Gov. Worth has asked for no State Agent, and finds that he can get along very well in his intercourse with the government without the special appointment of such an officer. We presume the Convention will not create the office.

The University.

We have been much disappointed in not recieving any account of the Commencement at Chapel Hill. We were promised a daily letter, and we learn that a full account was in preparation for the Sentinel, but up to the present time we have not received a line.

We learn, verbally, that the entire exercises were unusually interesting. The Commencement is spoken of as well comparing with any former occasion of a similar kind. The address of Ex-Gov. Vance we hear spoken of in the highest terms, by all who heard it. We hope the next session will be marked by a large increase of students.

Gen. Scott.

The military stationed in this city, observed the General Order from the War Department in honor of Gen. Scott. The flags floated at half mast, and the firing of guns was heard during the day. The Convention adjourned as a mark of respect.

Western Mail.

We desire to say to the Postmasters and Route Agents in the State, that all mail matter intended for Asheville or any of the Counties west of the Blue Ridge, should be sent, not to Morganton, but via Lynchburg, Va. to Greenville, Tennessee.

STATE CONVENTION.

ADJOURNED SESSION.

MONDAY, June 11th, 1866.

Sundry reports were made from standing and select committees, which will be noticed in detail hereafter.

Mr. Dick introduced an ordinance to increase the salary of the Adjutant General, to $800, per annum. (For the present year only.)

Mr. Dick moved a suspension of the rules, that this ordinance might be put on its passage. Not agreed to.

Mr. Dockery an ordinance to appoint a State Agent at Washington city. (Proposes the appointment of Dr. R. J. Powell as such agent.)

Mr. Richardson, a resolution to authorize R. P. Melville, sheriff of Bladen county to collect arrears of taxes. Referred to the committee on Finance.

On motion of Mr. Brooks, an ordinance in relation to widows who have qualified as executrix of the last wills and testaments of their husbands, was taken up for consideration.

Mr. Brooks briefly explained its objects and urged its passage. The ordinance passed its second and third readings.

Mr. Dockery, for the committee on Finance, reported an ordinance in relation to taxes levied by County Courts, which passed its several readings under a suspension of the rules.

SPECIAL ORDER.

The Convention proceeded to consider the amended Constitution.

Mr. Logan offered an amendment to article II of the Constitution, being a substitute for the 2d section, dividing the State into Senatorial Districts upon the white basis.

Messrs. Logan and Bynum addressed the Convention at length in favor of the amendment.

Messrs. Odom and Mebane opposed the amendment.

Mr. Phillips was opposed to embracing in the Constitution an apportionment of the districts.

Mr. Conigland moved a postponement of the question, and that it be made the special order for 10 o'clock, A. M., on Wednesday next.

This motion was adopted after some discussion.

Mr. Grissom then introduced the following resolution:

Resolved, As the unanimous sense of this Convention, as a mark of respect to the memory of General Winfield Scott, who rendered himself illustrious by a long course of public service, and by his devotion manifested on so many occasions to the Government of the United States, that this Convention do now adjourn until the usual hour of meeting on to-morrow.

Mr. Phillips suggested a postponement of the resolution until within a few moments of the regular time of adjournment.

Mr. Grissom pressing its immediate passage, the resolution was adopted and the Convention adjourned.

UNDERWOOD.—The Richmond correspondent of the New York World gives the following notice of Underwood's charge to the grand jury:

The sixteen jurors being all empannelled, the Judge commenced to read, in a clear but trembling voice, his charge to them—and such a charge! I do not repeat it here, for the papers will give it to you verbatim. Suffice it to say it was never equalled by anything in the whole annals of American jurisprudence, not even by the charge by the same judge at Norfolk. It fairly out-underwooded Underwood. The countenances of the assemblage, during the delivery of this wonderfully written document, were a study worthy of the pencil of a Hogarth. Every sign of mirth, from the half incredulous smile to the fully appreciative broard grin, were there visible. Learned lawyers sat listening with knitted eyebrows and mouths agape with astonishment; the wicked press gang punched each other hilariously in the ribs as each successive pop-gun came booming against the press; gentlemen sat pleasantly staring at each other, evidently trying to discover a likeness between them and the savages of Mozambique and Senegambia. The whole thing—intolerable, vulgar, and insulting as it was—was far too rich to excite anger; the one prevading feeling was incredulity and astonishment, mingled with pity for the exhibitor. The wicked animus of a Jeffreys was completely lost sight of in the amusing bombast of a Bunfuz.

ANOTHER SOUTHERN HISTORY OF THE WAR.—Hon. J. F. H. Claiborne a very graceful and gifted Southern author has, according to the Gainsville (Miss.) Star, established himself in New Orleans, for the facilities it will afford him for completing his history of the late war, commenced two years ago, but suspended for the want of documents. Accompanied by a proper draughtsman, Colonel C. expects to spend the next three months in surveying the great battlefields of Virginia, and other States in which the principal battles were fought.

GOV. WORTH'S CIRCULAR.

To the People of North Carolina.

Having been elected by you as your Governor in November last, for a term, which will expire on the 1st. of January next, and believing that my administration has met your approval, I announce myself a candidate for re-election in August next.

I do not propose to canvass the State. The constant pressure of Executive duties, many of which grow out of our anomalous political condition, require my constant attention. If the practice of canvassing the State at any time be a wise one, I am sure I could not do it at this time, without detriment to the public interests. Nor do I deem it expedient to address to you an extended circular. My past life and actions furnish the best guaranty you can have as to my future conduct. Into them I invite your candid scrutiny.

Upon some of the matters now engaging public attention, I deem it my duty to present you my views.

I think the chief attention of a State Executive should be directed to State affairs; but in our present unfortunate condition it is proper, and it will be expected that I shall give you my views on national affairs.

As a part of my early education, I was required to commit to memory and rehearse that portion of the farewell address of the father of his country, in which he so earnestly warns us to indignantly "frown upon the first dawning of any attempt to alienate any portion of our country from the rest." This became a fixed sentiment with me. The preservation of the Union has been the polar star of my political life. In the circular by which I announced myself as a candidate for the honorable position which I now fill, I referred to the fact that I had offered, in the House of Commons in 1831, resolutions denouncing nullification; that as a Senator in the General Assembly of 1860-61, in a forlorn minority, I constantly combatted every thing which I thought tended to disunion; voting in May 1861, with only two others, against the call of a Convention. I referred also to a circular which I addressed to my constituents in January 1861, when the question of Convention or no Convention was to be decided by their votes, in which I urged them not to be deceived by the cry that the Convention was to be called to "save the Union," that it was called to "destroy it." I then circulated among my constituents the celebrated speech of Andrew Johnson, then Senator from Tennessee and now President of the United States, in which he denounced with equal fervor Northern disunionism and Southern disunionism. I concurred with him then, as cordially as I do now.

In my circular of last October, I stated to you that I had always looked back on my course in all these instances with great satisfaction. In the ensuing election many of you who had always concurred with me, and many who had formerly differed with me in these views, voted for me. All who voted had recently renewed their allegiance to the United States by taking the oath prescribed in the President's amnesty proclamation. I entertain no doubt that they took this oath with the honorable and sincere purpose faithfully to observe it. All desired that our former relations with the Union should be speedily renewed. I regarded the cordial vote for me by many of those who had maintained the doctrine of secession, as in accordance with their recent pledge of loyalty to the United States, and as a token of respect for my consistent political record, and hence I received their support as alike creditable to them and to me.

I declared in my circular to you last Fall, and I now repeat, that if elected, "as far as my official position would enable me to do it, both from inclination and conviction of duty, I should endeavor to soften the animosities which have grown out of the horrible war, now happily ended. If some of us have grievously erred, grievously have all of us atoned for it. I shall endeavor to encourage a spirit of mutual forgiveness, a return to habits of law and order, and steadfast attachment to the Union, which made us so great and prosperous a people while we adhered to the counsels of Washington." I have endeavored to act in conformity to these promises.

I refer to these prominent points in my political record and the circumstances under which you did me the honor to elect me last November, to counteract the unjust impression which many have sought to make, at home and abroad, that my election was a disunion triumph. The imputation is grossly unjust to me, and as I believe equally unjust to everybody who voted for me.

My conduct in the discharge of my administrative duties is known to you; and I have so recently had occasion, in my message to the General Assembly, to present my views in relation to State policy, which message was very extensively circulated throughout the State, that I deem it unnecessary to reiterate them.

Wise policy requires, in order to restore prosperity and order, that every citizen quietly and industriously pursue his occupation, and obey the laws of his country while they are in force, however distasteful some of them may be. If we would have peace and plenty we must look for them as the fruits of order and industry.—The wisest legislation without these will be unavailing; and with them, the worst legislation will but retard the return of prosperity.

We are, as I think, unwisely and unconstitutionally excluded from the National councils, but the results of war have made us powerless. It is unwise to indulge in denunciations of the dominant power, and not inconsistent with real dignity and proper self respect, to abstain from intemperate remonstrance. Let us quietly pursue our several avocations, and hope that Providence will ultimately guide the minds of our late foes to counsels becoming magnanimity and wise and generous statesmanship.

The great object of all good men and wise statesmen should now be to mollify the passions which have grown out of the late conflict, and by all their influence to endeavor to restore cordial reconciliation between the lately alienated sections. The good of our whole nation requires sincere and universal reconciliation. This can not be if proscription and mutual crimination be indulged. The sublime injunctions of holy writ which forbid the indulgence of malevolence, are universal in their application.

In such a convulsion as that from which we are emerging, many will have received grievous injuries. No good can spring from the indulgence of revengeful feeling. Let every good citizen exert himself to repress it. Both philosophy and our religion rank forgiveness and charity among the chiefest of virtues, and as there are few of us who have not occasion to ask forgiveness for our own acts, let us be merciful to each other.

If you shall re-elect me as your chief magistrate, I appeal to my past conduct to sustain me in the assurance that I will do all I can to prove myself worthy of your renewed confidence.

JONATHAN WORTH.

RALEIGH, June 11th, 1866.

All papers in the State friendly to the re-election of Gov. Worth, are requested to give the above an insertion.—EDS. SENTINEL.

The Independent rails at Seward and Stanton this week. It declares that Seward's speech might have been made by Alexander H. Stephens, and that Stanton is a coward and a traitor to the Radical cause.

For the Sentinel.

It may surprise some people, who have seen with regret the strange harshness of spirit shown by our Ex-Provisional Governor towards the high State prisoner so long confined as a felon at Old Point—to learn that he once loved him with almost religious devotion. In the Standard of July 17th, 1861, while the Confederate government was provisional, and had its headquarters at Atlanta, we were called upon by the pious editor of that paper to "rely upon God and Jefferson Davis." And, afterwards, when the Confederate Provisional regime was about to crawl out of its chrysalis state, and assume its rank among the nations, it was not certain whether Jefferson Davis the Provisional President, should be President of the newly constructed Confederate Government (so-called.) But our prophetic Ex-P. G.—then honored by another name—desiring to establish a comfortable precedent for similar cases, which he plainly foresaw were about to happen, did in his paper bearing date August 21st, 1861, and published in the city of Raleigh, then as now, on Hargett Street in said city, make the first nomination of Jefferson Davis to the high office of President of the Confederate States of America in the words and figures following—to wit:

"On these grounds, therefore, with the present lights before us, having entire confidence in the ability, integrity and patriotism of the distinguished chiefs at the head of the Provisional Government of the Confederate States, and for the further reason that so far as we can judge, it is the will of the people, we now, in advance of suggestions from cliques, caucuses or conventions—as we have incidentally done repeatedly—declare our readiness, should they continue, as we believe they will, to exhibit the same patriotic and anti-partizan spirit, which has hitherto marked their course, to give the honored names of Jefferson Davis and Alexander H. Stephens our hearty support for the chief offices in the permanent Government of the Confederate States of America.

The Ex. P. G. had before shown great patriotism and devotion to the Confederate cause which justly entitled him to make the above nominations, ratified by the Southern people.—Who could more appropriately ask that he should be allowed to take the lead in all such matters than the eminent Confederate, who had previously shown so much zeal even unto gunpowder—in the Confederate cause. For he calleth for powder:

"POWDER.—Can powder be made in this State? Can it be made at as small cost as we can obtain it elsewhere? If so, why do not our authorities see to it? If it cannot be made as cheaply here as elsewhere, where can it be obtained most readily?"—Standard, July 17, 1861.

Also for muskets, rifles and shot guns:

"Let our old muskets, rifles and shot guns even, be rubbed up and put in good repair.—We presume there are several shops in the State, where the old flint lock can be changed to the percussion. Mr. Kuester of this city, can do it well and promptly."—Standard, June 12, 1861.

The Ex. P. G. is very happy and praiseth God:

"GOD BE PRAISED!—We were never happier over a battle, than we were upon the reception of the telegraphic dispatches announcing the defeat of 4,500 Lincoln's hirelings by 1160 North Carolinians and Virginians near Bethel Church, about nine miles from Hampton, Va. For once in the last three months, the telegraphic wires report the news about as the official account does."—Standard, July 19, 1861.

He assureth the people that God is on our side:

"Hear it men of the South! Rear it ye brave soldiers of the old North State—God is on our side! Forward! forward! to the breach! and meet the dastard foe, who dares invade our soil! Forward! and let your watchword be 'God is our strength and shield; the God of Jacob is our refuge.'"—Standard, June 26, 1861.

He taketh a stick, kindly, and intendeth to mount it:

"We are under obligations to our friend ——, for a hickory stick, cut from the battle field of Manassas, near where Col. Fisher fell. We prize this gift very highly and shall have it duly mounted."—Standard, June 26, 1861.

The modest Ex. P. G. becometh bellicose, and though from principle, discountenancing the duello, he valiantly proposeth to lay aside the stick and enact the "bould soger boy," mounted on a sure-enough horse:

"When we get a Colonel's or a Major's commission it shall be a fighting one. We'll not hesitate then, about fighting, however much we discountenance and ignore, from principle, the duello. Our well tried hickory will then be laid aside, for the implements of deadly warfare."—Standard, July 17, 1861.

He disdaineth to publish the laws of the Union any longer, but wanteth pay for what he hath done, proposeth a fair comp.—agreeth to take a Sharp's rifle for $60 and caps and cartridges for the balance $33.20. He waxeth still more valiant and speaketh of "taking a crack."

"LAWS OF THE UNITED STATES.—Under an appointment from Mr. Buchanan, we had commenced and had published nearly one-half the laws of the second session of the last Congress of the United States, before Mr. Lincoln's proclamation for troops was issued. We ceased to publish these laws as soon as we saw this proclamation. It is true we had agreed to publish them all, and so had Mr. Lincoln agreed to observe the Constitution. But he broke that instrument, and, in releasing our State from the Union by thus breaking the bond of Union, he at the same time released us from our obligation to publish the laws. We do not wish to put in our columns, for pay, the laws of our deadly enemies. Mr. F. W. Seward sent us a copy of all the laws on the 19th May, calling our attention to our instructions under our letter of appointment, and informing us that when we had finished the publication referred to, we should have $187. We shall never receive this $187. We shall never be entitled to it, because we shall not complete the contract. * * * *

But in strict justice we are entitled to about half the amount, for we had published about half the laws before Lincoln's proclamation was received; and if it should be agreeable to Mr. Fred. Seward, we will trade out the $93.50 with him, as follows: One Sharpe's rifle, to cost $60, and $33.50 in percussion caps and cartridges.—He will please forward per Adam's Express, and we will reply, acknowledging receipt, the first opportunity we have of taking a crack at one of Lincoln's hirelings."—Standard, June 12th, 1860.

He loveth not our own Andy—God bless him!

ANDY JOHNSON.—The papers charge Senator Johnson of Tennessee, with the rankest treason to his own State. It said that he has received $1000 from A. A. Lawrence of Boston, for his efforts to keep Tennessee in the Union. The course of Johnson, Etheridge, Nelson, Brownlow and Maynard, cannot be too severely denounced.—Standard, June 19th, 1861.

"If this vile traitor should ever place his feet again on Tennessee soil, he will never leave it a living man."—Standard, Aug. 28, 1861.

He speaketh evil of dignities, and would hand-cuff and hold up to scorn, "Scott and Lincoln"—as he irreverently calleth them:

"Gen. Scott shows his affection for his native State by preparing hand-cuffs for the citizens who may be taken in battle! Scott and Lincoln deserve to be hand-cuffed together, and exposed to the gaze and scorn of the Southern people."—Standard, July 31, 1861.

He disliked to travel Northward.

President Lincoln has issued a Proclamation declaring all commercial intercourse with the seceded States unlawful. Goods going to or coming from them, either by land or water, will be forfeited, unless they are accompanied with a special permit from Secretary Chase.—All vessels and vehicles conveying the same will also be forfeited, and all persons engaged will be arrested. All travel from North to South is also interdicted. Glad of it.

"CONFEDERATE LOAN.—We learn from the commissioner that the amount thus far subscribed to the Confederate loan in this City is $36,800. This does very well for a beginning, but the books here should be made to foot up at least $100,000. Let every citizen who has $50 or $100, or $500, or $1000, or $10,000, which he or she can spare, at once invest it in these bonds. In the first place the Confederate Government needs the money; and in the next place, it is a good investment."—Standard Aug. 28*th*, 1861.

He saith naughty things of Abram Lincoln:

"LINCOLN'S VILLANY."—Lincoln's administration has nearly filled its cup of iniquity.—Standard Aug. 21 1861.

"Oh, Abram! Abram! After-times will surely style thee "Abram, the Fool." 1st. For thou upholdest the government by undermining its foundations. 2d. Thou supportest the Constitution, by disobeying it thyself. 3d. Thou continueth the Union, by cutting it in two parts, by the sword. 4th. Thou esteemest the Platform of thine own device of more import and advantage, than the platform of Washington, the Constitution of 1787.—Standard Aug. 31, 1861.

Verily the Ex. P. G. hath written a book! It lieth-as aforetime, in the Public Library, among the Chronicles. Whoso will may search and see. It is not hidden—now—in the benign reign of one Jonathan.

VALEDICTORY.

The poor creature—Y. Y. freely admits that he hath lingered too long in the precincts of departed power, poking his pen at those little leavings, so scorned by honorable men. He hath bitterly felt the humility of his calling. He was well aware that the work would be very dirty; but he resolutely rolled up his sleeves, energetically held his nose, and commenced his Augean labors. He hath happily finished his work and betaketh himself to such repentance and severe ablutions as may justify his return to the society of decent people. He now raiseth his old beaver and biddeth his ancient friend an affectionate farewell!—with a prayer by way of P. S:

"Oh wad some power the giftie gie us,
To see oursels as ithers see us!"

Remarks of Mr. Jones of Rowan.

The Convention having under consideration the proposition to repeal the law punishing with death, negroes who attempt to commit rape upon white women:

Mr. Jones, of Rowan, said

MR. PRESIDENT:—Although we are a conquered people, we are not, and cannot be shorn of every right. We have certain inalienable rights of which we cannot be bereft; one of which is, to protect ourselves and families from personal violence. To surrender this right, could add nothing to our qualification for political Union. And if such demand has been made, I for one, am not willing to accede to it.

Those who have conquered us, have not shown to us nor to the world, that they have changed the instincts of the race which they have emancipated. The statute which makes this atrocity against the virtuous female a capitol felony in North Carolina, was enacted before I was born, and I take it for granted, that there must have existed a cogent necessity for it, otherwise it had never been enacted. The penalty attached to this crime, has in my judgment protected many a virtuous woman from a violence and humiliation, than which death is preferable, and unless we had a penitentiary in the State, in which criminals of this class could be confined, I am unwilling to see that law repealed. Besides, sir, North Carolina is a State, and those who insist upon the repeal of this statute cannot annihilate the fact, and as such, she has the right to enact laws for her own municipal government.

Ah! but we are told that the civil rights bill requires us to repeal this law. The Civil Rights Bill!! Yes, the Civil Rights Bill a flagrant violation of the letter and spirit of that Constitution which the creators of the Civil Rights Bill swore to protect and defend, and so far as I am concerned sir, I feel no disposition to make any concessions to it. It is wholly unconstitutional, and in my opinion, will be so declared, in the first Court in which it is tested. I am in favour of letting the negro testify in Courts in all cases in which he may be concerned.—Since the protection of his master has been taken away it is entirely proper that he should be allowed to be the guardian of his own rights. To testify in Courts of law for your own protection is a natural right, and all natural rights are inalienable rights, and for this reason, no one here, that I am aware of, desires to see the negro deprived of his rights. But sir, while no disposition is felt to oppress the negro, no relaxations in those laws enacted for the protection of females, should be permitted. If therefore, a negro attempt to violate the chastity of a woman he ought to die for it

GERRIT SMITH ON THE TRIAL OF MR. DAVIS.—Gerrit Smith has published a letter to Chief Justice Chase upon the proposed trial of Jefferson Davis. He denies the right of the government to try any Confederate in the civil courts in the present mixed condition, as he considers it, of peace and war, but in which war predominates. He alludes with severity to his anomalous state, and argues that military courts only are in order, and that they can take cognizance only of violations of the international hostilities. He holds, too that the charge of treason will be equally inapplicable after peace is declared and in the civil courts, and that the faith of the North is pledged against it; and he also dwells upon the injustice of victimizing a few where, if any are guilty, all are equally so. He admits that the constitution had left in doubt the question which formed the issue of the war, and that the Southern people had eminent authority for their own opinion. He then speaks forcibly of the demands of humanity in the future course of the government; but holds, nevertheless, that as the conqueror it may dispose of the conquered in such way as it chooses.

SENTENCED.—Edward Long, the negro rioter, charged with the atrocious murder of Mr. Whitehurst, in Norfolk, on the day of the negro celebration of the passage of the civil rights bill, was convicted before Judge Baker Thursday. The verdict was murder in the second degree—and the punishment eighteen years imprisonment in the penitentiary.

The Philadelphia Age, alluding to the last vagary, says:

The United States government has no more constitutional power to erect a Bureau of Education than it has to establish a Bureau of Religion, or a Bureau of Temperance. As we are by no means sure that we will not yet live to see the piety of the country developed under the auspices of an established church, by a bench of Yankee Bishops, just as it is proposed to develop its intellect with books and birches of a bureau of Yankee pedagogues.

MESSRS. BALDWIN AND BOTTS.—A Staunton correspondent of the Lynchburg News:

John B. Baldwin, Esq., has prepared, and will shortly issue from the press, in pamphlet form, the interview between President Lincoln and himself in 1861, which will wear a different face from that given it by Mr. John Minor Botts, and to which the people, I have no doubt, will give full credit and faith, for no sane man can believe that John Baldwin would ever have acted otherwise than for the good of his native State and for the South. If by any means in his power he had ever the opportunity to prevent war he would have done it.

The Wedge of Gold.

The question is often asked, "What shall we do to restore the feeling of friendship between the North and the South?" Just so long as each section, or portions of each section, hate the other, give vent to their passions, boast over each other, revive the past, threaten in the future, just so long will we be a divided people. A little incident has just transpired in Indiana, which is touching, and which will do more to melt into love the bitterness engendered by the war, than can easily be imagined.

When our army occupied Baton Rouge, a force was placed around the deserted mansion of Col. Bird, who was abroad in the Confederate service. At last it was deemed advisable, as a military necessity, to destroy it; and house, furniture and library, were at once reduced to ruin. A young American officer saved two splendid cut glass vases of gigantic size, of French manufacture, and two books from the library, which he forwarded to his uncle in Indiana. Said that uncle to me, "I never wanted them; my wife never wanted them; I felt like a thief every time I looked at them." But how to find the owner—how to return them, was the question. After trying several plans without success, he finally asked the Grand-Master mason of one of the Western States, to write to the Grand Master of the State of Louisiana, and if possible though him find out where Col. Bird could be found, if living, and if dead who his heirs were. He was growing more and more nervous over them. Although the plunder of war they were not his. It was peace now, and they must not remain in his house.

A few days since he received a touching letter from Col. Bird, who had survived the great conflict. He was raking among the ashes of his home, not knowing that a thing had escaped the fire. Yes, he wanted the vases, the books. It was all that was left—the only link that he had to bind the past and present. Send them, carefully; spare no expense. Such was the tenor of his letter. And then his thanks and expressions of regard for the kindness and tenderness that prompted such an act.

Last week the vases and books were packed and are now on their way to Baton Rouge.

How many houses in this fair land of ours have this wedge of gold in them! How many are furnished outright from the plunder of the war! If there is any one who can sleep easy under such a load, he deserves pity.—N. Y. Observer.

MORE STEALING.—The War Department has detailed an officer to visit the State of North Carolina and Georgia to investigate several reports relative to speculation in old iron belonging to the Government, and to make arrangements for disposing of the same.

TELEGRAPHIC.

Military Commission to try Bureau Officers at Raleigh.

WASHINGTON, June 10.

A special order has been issued by the War Department, convening a Military Commission on the 18th inst., for the trial of officers of the Freedmen's Bureau, arrested at the instance of Gens. Steedman and Fullerton. The delinquents are Gen. Whittlesey, Majors Wickersham, Mann and Seely, and Capts. Rosecrans and Glavis. Gen. Turner is presiding officer.

Enlistments for the regular army are stated to be 3,000 per month.

New York Markets.

NEW YORK June 10.

Cotton one to two cents higher, with good demand at 39@41. Gold 1.38½. Sterling 9½.—At sight 11.

Foreign mails, by all arrivals, left on Sunday evening for the South.

Telegraph Reports received too late for Yesterday's Issue.

The Fenians.

NEW YORK, June 9.

The interest in the Fenian situation now centres upon Gen. Spear's small command, now half a mile across the border. A portion of his cavalry made a dash into Frelighsburg, and routed the British force and captured a large British flag. Gen. Spear immediately commenced entrenching. The morale of the army is very bad. Desertions are the rule—whole companies are making tracks for the nearest home transportation offices, and in some instances regiments desert as an organization. Drunkenness prevails to an alarming extent.

BUFFALO, June 9.

Gen. Barry has received orders from the President of the United States forbidding the transportation over Roads or other modes of public travel, of persons or materials or munitions of war, supposed to be designed to violate the neutrality laws, also forbidding the transmission over telegraph wires, messages in cipher or otherwise from Fenians on matters relating to Fenian movements.

NEW YORK, June 9.

The Fenian Council of war at Buffalo have decided to order all troops back to their homes, without arms and money. They think it a useless waste of life to enter Canada.

Canadian Parliament.

TORONTO, June 9.

The Provincial Parliament convened on yesday. The Gov. General's Message congratulates the people of Canada on the spirit shown in rising to repel the invasion. He called attention to the issue of President Johnson's proclamation and strongly recommended the suspension of habeas corpus. A bill suspending the writ was passed and signed by both Houses during the day.

The suspension of habeas corpus caused a great flutter here, many persons have left and are leaving the city in consequence. No arrests have yet been made, but some are expected.—We expect soon to have tidings of arrests from various parts of the province.

Destructive Fire.

PHILADELPHIA, June 9.

A destructive fire occurred on Twenty-fifth and Callohill Streets, on the Schuylkill. Davie's woolen mills and James Monarch & Co's dyeing, cotton and wool establishments, were consumed. Loss estimated at $200,000. The Keystone mills were saved.

Congress.

WASHINGTON, June 9.

Senator Poland, to whom was referred the Bankrupt bill which recently passed the House, will probably make a favorable report from the Judiciary Committee next week. There is very little prospect of the passage of the bill this session, as it will lead to more discussion than there is time for the Senate to indulge.

Fenian Invasion Given Up.

NEW YORK, June 10.

The St. Albans special announces the finale of the Fenian invasion. The right wing of the army retreated to that place from Pidgeon Hill and were prepared to go home. The whole force is completely demoralized. Officers and men refuse to do duty, desertions occur by wholesale. After the council of war, General Spear reluctantly ordered his force to abandon the soil of Canada. No arms or reinforcements reached them. Spear said, he would rather be shot than to leave in such a way.

The U. S. government is furnishing transportation to Fenians, who gladly accept the opportunity given them.

BUFFALO, June 9.

Gen. Meade made a speech to the U. S. soldiers and said that the settlement of this trouble would prove satisfactory to our own and other governments, as tending to show that the United States, notwithstanding the past, would do to others as it would be done by.

Gen. Spear and staff surrendered at Oldensburg. Our special states that an American schooner was hailed by a British armed vessel, under threats to fire on her. The American Captain run up his colors and suggested the danger of firing on an unarmed vessel with that flag. The vessel was permitted to proceed.

Washington Gossip.

WASHINGTON, June 10.

Horace Greely and others from New York are in town, their business being to see Judge Underwood, in order to urge upon him the justice and propiety of admitting Jefferson Davis to bail. Some Congressmen speak confidently that he will be bailed, while others are equally confident he will not.

Cattle Disease in New York

ALBANY, June 10.

Hon. J. Stanton, President, and Col. P. R. Johnson, Secretary, of the N. Y. State Agricultural Society, have prepared a circular which says, we do hereby make known the existence of the Rinderpest or pluero pneumonia among the cows in the stables of New York and Brooklyn.

Foreign News.

NEW YORK, June 10.

Steamers Allamania, Russia, Denmark and Edinburg have arrived bringing dates to the 30th ult.

The government has been beaten in Parliament on Bonverus motion to prevent bribery and corruption at elections. The government lost by ten votes.

The Consolidated Bank of London has stopped payment.

The powers have all accepted the invitation to the Conference, which was to meet in Paris at an early day. The belligerents are yet preparing for the conflict, nevertheless. The Italian volunteers are mobilising rapidly. The Austrian army now numbers 600,000 men with parks of artillery and seige guns ready. The Prussians are concentrating at Glatzland.—Prussia and Italy have agreed to postpone hostilities until it is known whether or not the Conference fails.

The second Austrian conscription at Vienna has caused much discontent. The army commenced marching towards Venetia on the 24th. Italy engages not to attack during the sitting of the Conference, but is rebuilding her forts to resist the new and improved artillery.

The Paris Payes says: Compensation to Austria for the loss of Venetia, and its formation into a territory on the Adriatic coast. Prussia to retain the Elbe Dutchies and the Northern Schelswig to be returned to Denmark, and the Rhine provinces to form one State, attached to the Germanic Confederation. Turkey will not occupy Danubian principalities as was threatened consequent upon the Russian and French declaration against such intervention.

[We presume the Payes means, that the above will be, the results of the Conference.]—ED. SENT.

Have we a National Disease?

S. D. Wallace, Esq. President of the Wilmington & Weldon Railroad, [Aug 30, 1865,] says: "It has been said that Dyspepsia is our national disease. However this may be, it caused me, long and severe suffering. Providentially a friend furnished me with a few boxes of the HEPATIC PILLS, and the use of them has perfected a cure. In my family they have been used frequently with eminent success. Among my acquaintances, many cases originating from diseased liver, have been relieved and cured by them. I regard them as an invaluable medicine, and take pleasure in forwarding this voluntary tribute."

A NEW AND GRAND EPOCH IN MEDICINE!

DR. MAGGIEL is the founder of a new Medical System! The quantitarians, whose vast, internal doses enfeeble the stomach and paralyze the bowels, must give precedence to the man who restores health and appetite, with from one to two of his ex raordinary Pills, and cures the most virulent sores with a box or so of his wonderful and all healing Salve. These two great specifics of the Doctor are fast superseding all the stereotyped nostrums of the day. Extraordinary cures by Maggiel's Pills and Salve have opened the eyes of the public to the inefficiency of the (so called) remedies of others, and upon which people have so long blindly depended. Maggiel's Pills are not of the class that are swallowed by the dozen, and of which every box full taken creates an absolute necessity for another. One or two of Maggiel's Pills suffices to place the bowels in perfect order, tone the stomach, create an appetite, and render the spirits light and buoyant! There is no griping, and no reaction in the form of constipation. If the liver is affected, its functions are restored; and if the nervous system is feeble it is invigorated. This last quality makes the medicines very desirable for the wants of delicate females. Uterous and eruptive diseases are literally extinguished by the disenfectant power of Maggiel's Salve. In fact, it is here announced that Maggiel's Bilious, Dyspeptic and Diarrhea Pills cure where all others fail. While for Burns, Scalds, Chilblains, Cuts and all abrasions of the skin Maggiel's Salve is invaluable. Sold by d, MAGGIEL, 43 Fulton Street, New York, and all Druggists, at 25 cts. per box. Sold by all Druggists in Raleigh.

IS
Universally Admitted to Be the Best.

This new book of Mr. L. O. Emerson's has already met with a sale almost unprecedented—and though his previous work, THE GOLDEN WREATH, reached to three hundredth edition of one thousand copies each, present appearances indicate that the "MERRY CHIMES" will go beyond it.

The Elementary Department contains Just those Peculiar Elements that Attract and Retain the Attention of Children. The Songs are not old and time worn—going through a dozen books—but, New and Sparkling. Adapted to all Occasions, and Alive with the Spirit of Times. Price 50 cents a copy—$5 00 a dozen specimen Pages on application.

Ayer's Sarsaparilla

IS a concentrated extract of the choice root, so combined with other substances of still greater alterative power as to afford an effectual antidote for disease. Sarsaparilla is reputed to cure. Such a remedy is surely wanted by those who suffer from Strumous complaints, and that one which will accomplish their cure must prove, as this has, of immense service to this large class of our afflicted fellow citizens. How complete'y this compound will do it has been proven by experiment on many of the worst cases to be found in the following complaints:

Scrotula, Scrofulous Swellings and Sores, Skin Diseases, Pimples, Pustules, Blotches, Eruptions, St. Anthony's Fire, Rose or Erysipelas, Tetter or Salt Rheum, Scald Head, Ringworm, &c.

Syphilis or Venereal Disease is expelled from the system by the prolonged use of this Sarsaparilla, and the patient is left in comparative health.

Female Diseases are caused by Scrofula in the blood and are often soon cured by this Extract of Sarsaparilla.

Do not discard this invaluable medicine, because you have been imposed upon by something pretending to be Sarsaparilla, while it was not. When you have used Ayer's—then, and not till then, will you know the virtues of Sarsaparilla. For minute particulars of the diseases it cures, we refer you to Ayer's American Almanac, which the agents below named will furnish gratis to all who call for it.

AYER'S CATHARTIC PILLS, for the cure of Costiveness, Jaundice, Dyspepsia, Indigestion, Dysentery, Foul Stomach, Headache, Piles, Rheumatism, Heartburn arising from Disordered Stomach, Pain or Morbid Inaction of the Bowels, Flatulency, Loss of Appetite, Liver Complaint, Dropsy, Worms, Gout, Neuralgia, and for a Dinner Pill.

They are sugar coated, so that the most sensitive can take them pleasantly, and they are the best Aperient in the world for all the purposes of a family physic.

Prepared by DR. J. C. AYER & Co., Lowell, Mass., and sold by Williams & Haywood, P. F. Pescud, Raleigh, N. C., and Dealers generally.

A BOON TO THE SICK.
AND
THE LIGHT OF THE WORLD.

DR. MAGGIEL'S PILLS AND SALVE.

These Life-giving remedies are now given publicly to the world. For over a quarter of a century of private practice the ingredients in these

LIFE-GIVING PILLS!

Have been used with the greatest success. Their mission is not only to prevent disease, but to cure. They search out the various maladies by which the patient is suffering and reinvigorate the failing system. To the aged and infirm a few doses of these valuable PILLS will prove to be

A VERY FOUNTAIN OF YOUTH,

For in every case they add new life and vitality, and restore the waning energies to their pristine state.—To the young and middle-aged they will prove most invaluable, as a ready, specific, and sterling medicine. Here is a dream realized, that Ponce-de Leon sought for three hundred years ago, and never found. He looked for a fountain that would restore the old to vigor and make youth ever

An Eternal Spring!

It was left for this day and hour to realize the dream, and show in one glorious fact, that magic that made it fair.

THESE FAMOUS REMEDIES

Cannot stay the flight of years, but they can force back and hold short, diseases that might triumph over the aged and the young. Let none hesitate then, but seize the favorable opportunity the offers. When taken as prescribed—

FOR BILLIOUS DISORDERS

Nothing can be more productive of cure than these Pills. Their almost magic influence is felt at once; and the usual concomitants of this most distressing disease are removed. These remedies are made from the purest

VEGETABLE COMPOUNDS.

They will not harm the most delicate female, and can be given with good effect in prescribed dose to the youngest babe,

FOR CUTANEOUS DISORDERS

And all eruptions of the skin, the SALVE is most invaluable. It does not heal externally alone, but penetrates with the most searching effects to the very root of the evil!

PROSPECTUS.

'BALTIMORE EPISCOPAL METHODIST.

The Baltimore Episcopal Methodist will be issued in this city the first of next month. Its publication will be under the mangement of the Rev. JOHN POISAL, DR. THOMAS E. BOND and REV. S. S. ROSZEL, Editors. The "Episcopal Methodist," of Richmond, Virginia, having been transferred to Baltimore, Bishop Doggett and Rev. J. E. Edwards will continue their services as Editoral correspondents. Rev. C. K. Marshall, D. D., General Agent. The best talent of the Southern Church will be employed upon its columns. The publisher has the pleasure to announce that contributions may be expected from Bishop Pierce of Georgia, Bishop Marvin of Texas, Bishop McTyeir of Alabama, Bishop Wightman of South Carolina, Dr. Summers of Nashville, Dr. Marshall of Mississippi, Dr. Hoston of Kentucky, and others.

The contributions of some of the most eminent men of other denominations will also enrich its columns: Rev. Dr. Palmer of New Orleans, Dr. Burgett, of Mobile, Dr. Bullock of Baltimore, Prof. McGuffy of the University of Virginia, Rev. Peyton Harrison, and others.

It is designed to make the paper the great organ of the Episcopal Methodist Church, yet in no partizan sense will it be denominational. The General Conference which recently met at New Orleans, and the whole people of the South concede to Baltimore a name and prestige as the proper place for its publication. No pains or expense will be spared to make it a first-class Journal and a welcome visiter to every Christian household. The names of the gentlemen who will have the Editorial management of the paper, and the corps of able coadjutors associated with them are the best pledge to its patrons, that they will find the Episcopal Methodist in its spirit and teaching, the advocate of conservative principles and a bulwark of defense against the dangerous tendencies of the times.

We deem it proper to assure our friends, that the salutary measures of reform, which were adopted by the late General Conference, meet the cordial approval of the conductors of this paper. As it will represent every State and Conference in the South, it will afford the best advertising medium in all our business and social relations. It invites a renewal in a stronger form of those commercial and fraternal ties which must bind Baltimore and the South more closely together.

This important organ of communication between our respective communities, will be published regularly once a week, on fine paper, large type and quarto size at $4.00 per annum, or $2.00 for six months, invariably in advance.

Office of publication, 332 W. Baltimore Street, Selby & Dulancy, where subscriptions and advertisements may be left; also at the Banking House of Wm. T. Smithson & Co., 2224 Baltimore St. Wm. Devries & Co., 312 Baltimore St.; J. W. Bruff & Co., 245 Baltimore St.; Hopkins, Harden & Kemp, 336 Baltimore St.; Charles Hoffman, 377 W. Baltimore St.; Banking House, Thomas & Co., 176 W. Baltimore St.; Drug Store, Dr. J. L. Gibbons, corner Eutaw and M. H. Waite's Book Store, 138 Baltimore St. All the members of the Southern General Conference are authorized Agents. The preachers of the several annual Conferences and clergymen generally, are requested to act as agents for this paper.

The Medicinal Properties

Of the Sulphur water have been amply tested during many years by a large number of visitors, and its beneficial results strikingly displayed in the cure or relief of Dyspepsia, Affections of the Liver, Jaundice, Diseases of the Skin, &c.

Another Spring has been discovered in the vicinity of the establishment, an accurate scientific analysis of which [given below] proves that it is a valuable Chalybeate. It is a mild and gentle tonic, and in the opinion of the physicians who have examined it, and witnessed its effects in some cases during several seasons, must prove beneficial in Atonic Dyspepsia, Chlorosis, Uterine Nervous and Neuralgic Affections connected with Debility; and of especial service to persons living in malarious regions of country, whose blood has been robbed of its normal proportion of iron by repeated attacks of malarial fevers.

Persons travelling on the Raleigh and Gaston Railroad will always find a line of stages, under the management of Mr. Granger, ready for their accommodation at Warrenton Depot. There will be a daily mail from Warrenton to the Springs.

COPY RIGHT SECURED.

"A Calendar for the Christian Era, combining the Julian and Gregorian modes of reckoning time, by James Rumley, of N. C.

The subscriber having copy-righted this most valuable of all the "Calendars" ever before offered to the public, will be prepared in a few days to supply the demand for them to any extent.

Many attempts have been made, from time to time, to secure a Calendar, by which all the dates of the Christian Era could be accurately, and at the same time readily, found. These attempts have heretofore signally failed because the authors have sought to condense too much, and because they were really not conversant with the subject of which they treated, and which they vainly endeavored to elucidate.

I claim for the Calendar now presented, perfect simplicity of arrangement, combined with the most infallible accuracy. The plan is so simple that any one who can use an ordinary Almanac, or Counting House Calendar, cannot fail to see clearly into the working of this. Time past, present or future can be immediately found. Its accuracy will bear the test of the most rigid scrutiny. I invite criticisms, and confidently appeal to an enlightened public judgment for a frank expression of opinion as to its merits.

To supply a want long felt, the author has appended to the Calendar, under the head of "Explanatory Remarks," a succinct, but most valuable history of the Julian Calendar from the time of Julius Cæsar, and of the astronomical causes which led to the change made by Pope Gregory XIII, in 1582. These notes alone are worth the price of the Calendar.

If any object to the space the Calendar occupies, the objection is answered by the reply that any attempt, at condensation would be a sacrifice of simplicity, the fatal rock on which every previous attempt has been stranded.

Every professional man, every mechanic and farmer, all merchants and tradesmen should supply themselves with copies, at once. Price $1.

COTTON GINS,
MANUFACTURED BY
W. G. CLEMONS, BROWN & CO.,
COLUMBUS, GA.

WE have received the manufacture of Cotton Gins in this city, and will be prepared to fill orders by 1st June next. As we shall not be, as heretofore, represented by traveling agents, parties wishing our Gins, will confer a favor by sending in their orders at an early day. As owing to the demand, we shall be unable to keep a stock in the hands of our local agents, as it was our practice before the war. All business transactions being now reduced to cash, our sales will be made on the basis of ready pay.

Our Gins are too well known to require any special notice or commendation; we believe they are unrivalled in the chief points of excellence which go to make up a superior machine, namely: Speed light draught and good sample.

Our DOUBLE CYLINDER GINS will be found superior to the single cylinder, when parties have steam or good water power, to give them the necessary speed. In all cases when this can be done, we recommend them in preference to the single cylinder. If, however, indifferent or insufficient power is used, they will not do as well as the single Gin.

Messrs. DeROSSET & CO., Wilmington, N. C., are our general agents for the State of North Carolina.

W. G CLEMONS, BROWN & CO.
Columbus, Ga., April 24 '66.

We will give prompt attention to orders for the above celebrated Gins from any part of the State. The price is five dollars per Saw at the Factory, and five dollars for each Gin will only be charged to purchasers for transportation to this point.
